

UDR Training Benefits

UDR has been a leader in the field of Utah mediation and conflict resolution training since 1996. UDR training courses offer:

- Comprehensive training from some of Utah's most experienced and credentialed mediators.
- Courses that are Utah Court approved (i.e., provide the needed training qualification to apply for Utah Court Roster status).
- Interactive workshops based on adult learning theory.
- Small groups that encourage new skills practice in a supportive environment.
- Fun activities to complement the handouts and information binders.

By attending UDR trainings, you support a non-profit mediation center that provides assistance to more than 4,000 low- and medium-income Utah residents annually.

Customized Training Workshops

UDR assists organizations that want to build conflict resolution skills and competency among managers and employees. UDR staff will design an intervention to meet the specific needs of a business or group.

Customized training includes handouts and experienced facilitators. The cost for these workshops varies, depending on the issues and time involved. UDR has successfully provided training for many organizations, including:

- U.S. Forest Services
- Brigham, Salt Lake, Ogden, and West Valley Cities
- Utah State University
- Multicultural Legal Center
- Utah Schools for the Deaf & Blind
